

Inno Textiles' commitment, to consistently high, quality standards is supported by its ISO9001:2015 certification, (click here for certificate) as well as a fully equipped laboratory where all products are extensively tested on an ongoing basis. This is re-enforced by a strong quality ethos throughout the company where every employee realises their responsibility and accountability for quality. As a company we also appreciate that without consistently high quality standards we cannot achieve the levels of customer satisfaction demanded today.
